

STOP, WOMAN!

AND CONSIDER
THE ALL-
IMPORTANT FACT

That in addressing Mrs. Pinkham you are considering your private life to a woman—a woman whose experience with women's diseases covers a great many years.

You can talk freely to a woman when it is revolving to relate your private troubles to a man—besides a man does not understand—simply because he is a man.

Many women suffer in silence and drift along from bad to worse, knowing full well that they ought to have immediate assistance, but a natural modesty impels them to shrink from exposing themselves to the questions and probably examinations of even their family physician. It is unnecessary. Without money or price you can consult a woman whose knowledge from actual experience is great.

Mrs. Pinkham's Standing Invitation.

Women suffering from any form of female weakness are invited to promptly communicate with Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. All letters are received, opened, read and answered by women only. A woman can freely talk of her private illness to a woman; thus has been established the eternal confidence between Mrs. Pinkham and the women of America which has never been broken. Out of the vast volume of experience which she has to draw from, it is more than possible that she has gained the very knowledge that will help your case. She asks nothing in return except your good-will, and her advice has relieved thousands. Surely any woman, rich or poor, is very foolish if she does not take advantage of this generous offer of assistance.

If you are ill, don't hesitate to get a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at once, and write Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., for special advice. When a medicine has been successful in restoring to health so many women, you cannot well say, without trying it, "I do not believe it will help me."

POT AND KETTLE.

Professor Blackie used to form a very picturesque feature in the Edinburgh streets. He was a cheery old patriarch, with handsome features and hair falling in ringlets about his shoulders. No one who had seen him could possibly forget him.

One day he was accosted by a very dirty little boothblack with his "Shine your boots, sir?"

Blackie was impressed by the filthiness of the boy's face.

"I don't want a shine, my lad," said he. "But if you'll go and wash your face, I'll give you a sixpence."

"A' richt, sir," was the lad's reply. Then he went over to a neighboring fountain and made his ablutions. Returning, he held out his hand for the money.

"Well, my lad," said the professor, you have earned your sixpence. Here it is."

"I dinna want it, auld chap," returned the boy, with a lordly air. "I've canpied it and get yer hair cut."—Mobile Register.

ENTERTAINED THE OFFICERS

OF THE NORTH ATLANTIC FLEET

The arrival of the ships of the North Atlantic fleet at Narragansett Pier, R. I., on August 18, was the occasion of a celebration by the community, natives as well as visitors.

A dinner was given for Rear Admiral Evans and the officers of his fleet by Mr. and Mrs. John H. Hanan was the leading event of the evening. Shore Acres was brilliantly lighted and colored lights were strung from the gateway to the west piazza, which was used as a temporary entrance. The door to the large central hall was closed, and here was set a huge table, about which were sixty guests. The centre was banked with flowers in the Navy colors, yellow and blue, and the cloth decorated with ferns and asparagus. Two hundred electric lights glimmered from the foliage, and the Admiral's punch bowl added to the beauty of the artistic effect.

Mr. and Mrs. Hanan were assisted in receiving the guests by Mrs. Anthony Dyer, of Providence; Mrs. H. T. V. Harris, wife of Rear Admiral Harris, of Washington and Mrs. Roswell D. Hitchcock, of New York. The hostess wore a handsome gown of pearl paillettes and ornaments of pearls and diamonds. Music was furnished by a Hungarian band. As the squadron officers appeared they played "Strike Up the Band, Here Comes a Sailor." Patriotic airs followed during the evening. The band later went to the Casino ball and with the regular orchestra kept a continuous programme for dancing from ten to half past one o'clock. Guests at the dinner table from the fleet were Rear Admiral Robley D. Evans, Lieutenant Commander Schoemaker, Lieutenant Commander Brittain, Captain Pillsbury and Captain N. E. Niles and Lieutenant W. S. Crossely, of the Maine; Captain William S. Cowles, of the Missouri; Captain Bernette, Lieutenant Commander Knapp, of the Kentucky; Captain B. F. ## DOING THEIR DUTY

Scores of Pensacola Readers are Learning the Duty of the Kidneys.

To filter the blood is the kidneys' duty.

When they fail to do this the kidneys are sick.

Backache and many kidney ills follow.

Urinary trouble, diabetes, Doan's kidney pills cure them all. Pensacola people endorse our claim.

Charles Wilson, living on West Romana street, brick mason by trade, says: "I procured Doan's Kidney Pills at Sidney Kahn's drug store, No. 9 South Palafox street, and used them for a lame back and sharp twinges of pain which passed through me when I stooped or made any sudden movement. I was surprised at the quickness with which I was relieved. Mrs. Wilson also suffered from her back and kidneys. She could hardly turn in bed and suffered from a dull aching pain in her loins. Just before taking Doan's Kidney Pills she was completely laid up. After taking a course of the treatment all symptoms of kidney trouble left her, and up to date there has been no recurrence. I strongly urge Pensacola people to use Doan's Kidney Pills if they suffer from their back or kidneys."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.
